Join us as we brush up on our business communication skills!

Cherie Tucker, Principal at GrammarWorks, with her entertaining teaching methods will enliven our evening while inspiring us to improve our communication skills in business as well as our personal lives. She will cover a wide range of topics including: e-mail etiquette, business communications do's and don'ts, confusing words, common misspellings and other interesting topics that deal with our day to day communication. This meeting is for everyone in your company. Why? Because everyone communicates!

You won't want to miss out on this first WGA meeting of the year. Come, learn, and brush up your communication skills. Here's to a new year and new skills!
